The Program

US Studies is a program for anyone who wants to develop an in-depth understanding of the history and culture of Canada's nearest neighbor. While everyone will take an introductory core course, students can choose to explore particular areas such as music, film, art, literature, history, or political science.

Those enrolled will have the opportunity to investigate rock n' roll, Hollywood cinema, African-American history, the novels of Hemingway and Steinbeck, and congressional politics. Students will learn new approaches and discover how to bring together material from different fields.

Degree Requirements

Please note: Prospective students are advised that offers of admission to a new program may be made only after the university's own quality assurance processes have been completed and the Ontario Universities Council on Quality Assurance has approved the program.

Specialized Honours BA: 120 Credits

Residency requirement: a minimum of 30 course credits and at least half (50 per cent) of the course credits required in each undergraduate degree program major/minor must be taken at York University.

Graduation requirement: students must successfully complete (pass) at least 120 credits which meet the Faculty's degree and program requirements with a cumulative grade point average of at least 5.00.

General education:

A minimum of 21 general education credits as follows:

Program Courses

Core Course - Humanities

AP/HUMA 2325 6.0A - INTRODUCTION TO U.S. STUDIES

Through the study and evaluation of primary texts (including essays, newspapers, books, political and legal documents, films, music, and the visual arts) students consider how individuals living in the U.S. have over the course of time perceived, articulated, celebrated, criticized or lamented their condition. The course addresses a variety of themes and controversies (the frontier, slavery and its legacies, republican government and constitutional law, regionalism, religion, immigration, popular and consumer culture, the U.S. in the world) in order better to comprehend the historical and mythic forces that have shaped and defined American life.

This course is a requirement for students in U.S. Studies and provides them with a foundation for the subsequent courses they take in this program. It introduces a broad range of disciplines including literary studies, history, political science, and the arts. It also provides a chronological overview of the development of the United States from its colonial origins to the present day.

Other students, who are not majors, will similarly benefit from the coherent, but wide-ranging approach that characterizes the course.

Program Courses (categorized by time period)

*Courses marked with an asterisk (*) can fulfill either the “Before 1900” or the “After 1900” requirement. They cannot, however, do double duty. That is, the student must select which of the time periods the course will be credited to.*

Note: all listed Glendon (GL) courses are in English except those marked FR.

Course Descriptions

Program Courses (categorized by time period)

1. Literature

Before 1900:

AP/EN 2230 6.00 Introduction to American Literature

This course provides a broad but selective overview of American literature from the European encounter to the present. It introduces students to the major concepts, issues, contexts, events, and writers necessary for future study in the field.

AP/EN 2231 6.00 African American Literature

An introduction to the African American literary tradition across genres, from its slavery-era origins until today, exploring representations of selfhood, consciousness, solidarity, conflict, power, literacy, voice, heritage, and destiny.

AP/EN 3310 6.00 Poetry of the United States

A critical examination of the major achievements of American poets writing in the 20th century against the background of earlier poets who may be said to have established the foundations of an American poetic tradition. Course credit exclusions: None. PRIOR TO FALL 2009: Course credit exclusions: AS/EN 3320 6.00.

AP/EN 4332 3.00 Edgar Allan Poe

Applying various critical approaches, the course examines Poe's tales of horror, his detective fiction, his one novel, his lyric poetry, and his critical theories about the short story and poetry. Course credit exclusions: None. PRIOR TO FALL 2009: Course credit exclusion: AS/EN 4219 3.00.

GL/EN 3470 6.00

American Drama

A study of American literature from its pre-colonial origins into the 20th century.

After 1900:

AP/EN 3323 3.00

American Literature: 21st Century

This course explores American literature in the twenty-first century. The course will emphasize emerging literary voices of the new millennium but will also consider how writers who established themselves in the twentieth century adapt to, and write about, the changing cultural conditions of the new century. Course credit exclusions: None.

AP/EN 3350 6.00

Harlem Renaissance

This course provides an introduction to the Harlem Renaissance, a period of unprecedented African-American cultural production in the 1920's and early 30's, fundamental for understanding later 20th century American and African-American literature.

Course credit exclusion: AP/EN 4350 6.00 (prior to Summer 2012).

PRIOR TO FALL 2009: Course credit exclusions: AS/EN 4210J 6.00 (prior to Fall/Winter 2003-2004), AS/EN 4214 6.00.

AP/EN 4191 3.00

Studies in the Literature of the United States: Contemporary Women Writers

A study of the postmodern "hybrid aesthetic" created by recent women writers. Our investigations include how genre is formed by gender; racial, cultural, class and generational issues and how contemporary American novels render home, community and women's self-realization. Course credit exclusion: AP/EN 4191 6.00. PRIOR TO FALL 2009: Course credit exclusions: AS/EN 4210C 3.00 (prior to Fall/Winter 2003-2004), AS/EN 4217 3.00.

Studies in the Literature of the United States: Wharton and Cather

This course examines the contributions to early 20th-century American fiction of two influential women writers, Edith Wharton and Willa Cather. Each in her own way subverted or radicalized what had been a canonical male-dominated tradition in 19th-century America. Course credit exclusions: None.

PRIOR TO FALL 2009: Course credit exclusions: AS/EN 4210E 3.00 (prior to Fall/Winter 2003-2004), AS/EN 4213 3.00.

AP/EN 4352 3.00

F. Scott Fitzgerald

This course studies novels, selected short stories and essays by F. Scott Fitzgerald. Some of the notebook entries, letters, juvenilia and memoirs relating to his theories of writing and his own fiction in particular are considered. Course credit exclusions: None. PRIOR TO FALL 2009: Course credit exclusions: AS/EN 4260J 3.00 (prior to Fall/Winter 2003-2004), AS/EN 4267 3.00.

AP/EN 4371 3.00 Contemporary American Drama
